ADDITIONS TO THE FITZ RANDOLPH GENEALOGY

Page 6	No. 12		ISAAC, b. Dec. 7, 1664 (not 1644)
P. 7	No. 5	Line 6	John Fitz Randolph was one of the 17 original members of the "Old First Day Church", who formed the Seventh Day Baptists in 1705. (not 1686/9).
P. 10	No. 15	Line 3	Isabel Laing Fitz Randolph died Sept. 21, 1754, and her will was dated Aug. 31, 1754 (not 1744).
P. 13	No. 30:x		Place extension number "82" before Samuel's name.
P. 17	No. 40:i.		Some authorities contend that Mary[5] Fitz Randolph, b. Mar. 25, 1731, married Israel Dissosway and had children, Israel, Catherine, Mary, Caroline and Elizabeth. Others think she mar. Stephen Vail, as given under 98b. Further proof is needed.
P. 18	No. 40a:iii.		Sarah (Smith) Marriott, widow of Thomas Marriott, Jr., did not marry second, Stephen Vail, Jr. This is proved by the minutes of the Middleton Monthly Meeting, Bucks Co., Pa., in an item dated 10, 7 mo., 1788, which speaks of Sarah Marriott, widow, and her two daughters, Anna Humber and Sarah Marriott, Jr. So she could not have married Vail in 1763. It was her niece, Sarah Smith, dau. of her brother, Samuel Smith, who married Vail (see below). Mr. Dornan was misled by an incorrect abstract of the will of Shubal Smith published in the N. J. Archives 33:398.

The children of Thomas and Sarah (Smith) Marriott were:

a. Anna, b. 5 mo., 20, 1740 at Princeton, N. J.; d. 1 mo. 28, 1824. Married 1st by N. J. Mar. Bond (H:207) dated May 16, 1759, Billingham Humber. Married 2nd, 16 of 11 mo., 1791, at a meeting held in Bristol, John Sisson of Bristol.

b. Samuel, b. 24, 10 mo., 1740 at Trenton; d. 9th mo., 1743.

c. Martha, b. 25, 7 mo., 1747 at Trenton; d. 8 mo., 1826; married at Bristol, 5, 5 mo., 1774, William Canby of Wilmington (then in Pa., now in) Delaware, son of Oliver and Elizabeth Canby.

d. Mary, b. 18, 10 mo., 1748 at Bristol; d. there 8, 1 mo.,

e. Sarah, b. 17, 6 mo., 1756 at Bristol; mar. there 21, 10 mo., 1801, Isaac Morris.

P. 18 No. 40a:iv. Samuel Smith, 1722/3 1748, and his wife Mercy Taylor had the following children:

a. Elizabeth, b. 18, 9 mo., (Nov.), 1744; d. at Galen, N.Y. 25, 12 mo., 1831 in her 88th year; mar. at Plainfield, N. J., 21, 1 mo., 1761, Zachariah Pound, son of Elijah Pound by his first wife, Bathsheba 4 Fitz Randolph (No. 29:iv.).

b. Sarah, b. 10, 6 mo., (Aug.), 1746; mar. at Plainfield, N. J. 26, 10 mo., 1763, as his second wife, Stephen Vail, Jr., and had three children, Samuel, Moses, and Shubal.

c. Samuel, b. 28, 12 mo. (Feb.), 1748/9 (posthumous); mar. 1st at Plainfield, 22, 3 mo., 1769, Sarah Pound, daughter of Elijah Pound and his second wife Elizabeth Smith (No. 40a:ii.); married 2nd at the Woodbridge Meeting House, 27, 12 mo., 1773, Elizabeth Shotwell, dau. of Joseph and Mary (Manning) Shotwell [113.]

P. 18 No. 40a:vi. Anne Smith, b. Sept. 1, 1726; died 12-12-1726.

40a:x. Phebe Smith, born 11-31-1734; d. July 2, 1736.

P. 19 No. 41:iv. Omit present parenthesis, and insert instead: (named after her brother who died Sept. 15, 1737. The name is spelled this way in Quaker records, and on her tombstone).

P. 20 No. 43a Margaret F. R. Hadden died June 4, 1749 in Woodbridge. She and Thomas Hadden had ten children instead of the eight given, as follows:

i. Elizabeth, as given.
ii. Mary, b. 2, 8 mo., 1729. Then as given.
iii. Nathaniel, b. 8, 12 mo., 1730 or 1731. Then as given.

P. 22 No. 50:iv. Mary died Nov. 17, 1768.

No. 50:v. Katherine's 2nd husband, John Ross, was b. May 2, 1762, at New Garden, Bucks Co., Pa.

No. 50:vi. Elizabeth mar. David Shotwell June 24, 1779; he was a son of Samuel and Ann Shotwell.

P. 23 No. 54:v. Sarah's husband, Daniel Dunn, was a son of Benjamin 3 Dunn and Catherine 4 Drake.

P. 24 No. 63:i. A large Michigan family of Randolphs trace their descent from a REUBEN RANDOLPH, born in 1767, and said to have been a son of Benjamin and Mary Randolph. Could this Reuben, born in 1751, have died in childhood, and a second son Reuben (possibly by a second wife Mary) been born in 1767? This is conjecture, and needs more evidence. But it might be well at this place to give the record of that Reuben.

REUBEN (5?) RANDOLPH, b. Aug. 28, 1767 at Manahawkin, N. J.; d. Jan. 16, 1860, aged 63, in Somerset Township, Hillsdale Co., Mich.; mar., date unknown, CATHERINE BROWN, b. 1767-8; d. Nov. 12, 1857, aged 90. Both are buried in the Randolph cemetery. His stone gives his age as 93 years and 6 mos. He served in the War of 1812. He lived in Walworth, N. Y. and came to Hillsdale Co., Mich. with his sons in 1835-6, settling in Somerset Township. The family still resides in the old homestead. (Authorities: Mr. Francis Medhurst, Ferndale, Mich; Mrs. Albert Santos, Oakland, Calif. with assistance from Mrs. V. L. Moore, Hillsdale, Mich. and Mrs. Martha Carney, mentioned above.)

P. 24 No. 63:vi. Could this be the Moses Fitz Randolph who deserted Capt. Telford's Company, G. Clinton's Brigade, Col. Pawling's Reg't. reported in the Public Papers of George Clinton, Vol. 2, p. 124?

P. 24 No. 67 Date of license and marriage should be 1757, not 1857.

P. 26 No. 82 Samuel's children were born in New Jersey, not in New Salem, W. Va.

P. 26 No. 82:vi. Rhulanah[5] F. R. had only one husband, John Bonnell. (Auth. Corliss F. Randolph).

P. 27 No. 85 The desk on which the Declaration of Independence was written is now in the possession of the Smithsonian Institution.

P. 28 No. 85 Benjamin Randolph's two children were by his first wife. His 2nd daughter, Mary, mar. John Jacob Sluyter on May 1, 1784, at Phila., Pa. She lived in Augusta, Ga., and had children Randolph, b. Dec. 21, 1785 and Anne Frances Eliza. m. Sept. 15, 1813 Augustine Slaughter and had children.

P. 28 No. 88 Eunice's husband, GERSHOM HUNT, was b. 1728, not 1723. His will was proved Apr. 8, 1810, in Rowan Co., N. C. Their second child, Charity Hunt, mar. ab. 1772, John Hunt.

P. 29 No. 96 The will of John Randolph, dated Apr. 5, 1814, proved Feb. 8, 1815, names wife Elizabeth, and children Nathaniel; Betsy; Nancy; Vance; Job; Rebecca, wife of Jonathan Quick; and Sally Stillwagon; and son-in-law William Campbell (Quick Gen.).

P. 31 No. 98b One wonders if the MARY FITZ RANDOLPH, dau. of Samuel Fitz Randolph (No. 40) and his second wife Johannah Kinsey, who was born at Woodbridge, N. J., on March 25, 1731, was actually the Mary who married Stephen Vail as his third wife in 1771. A correspondent says that Mary (Fitz Randolph) Vail died May 23, 1828, which would make her 97 years old at death, if she was Samuel's daughter. The correspondent also gave a list of the children of Stephen Vail and Mary Fitz Randolph:

i. Rebecca, b. July 3, 1772.
ii. Shubal, b. Jan. 29, 1774.
iii. Aaron, b. Aug. 7, 1775.
iv. Sara, b. July 8, 1777.
v. Randolph, b. July 19, 1779.
vi. Mary, b. Oct. 29, 1781.
vii. Esther, b. Feb. 4, 1784.
viii. Hugh, b. May 25, 1786.
ix. Katherine, b. Oct. 29, 1787.

So if the Mary, b. 1731, was the mother of these children, she did not marry till she was 41 years old, and then had nine children in quick succession, the last when she was 56 years old! It seems to this editor that we have the wrong Mary Fitz Randolph; but the right one has not yet been determined!

P. 31 No. 98b Lines 4, 5 and 6. Stephen Vail's second wife was Sarah Smith not Sarah (Smith) Marriott, b. 10, 6 mo. (Aug.), 1746, dau. of Samuel Smith and Mercy Taylor, and granddaughter of Shubal Smith and his wife Prudence[4] Fitz Randolph (No. 40a). See additions to 40a:iv.

P. 31 No. 100:iii. Through the kindness of Eliza Leiper Woolford (Mrs. A. Waldo) Jones, of Atlanta, Ga., we have a list of the descenddants of Margaret[6] Fitz Randolph. She was born in 1781; died July 3, 1848; married Dec. 29, 1819 (not 1795 as stated), NATHAN WINSLOW, born Jan. 4, 1795, died Aug. 29, 1873. They had four children (Winslow):

P. 37	No. 121:iii	The date of the possible marriage to Frederick Dalrymple should be Oct. 1, 1825, not 1828.
P. 38	No. 127	RHODA AYRES was the dau. of James and Hope (Bloomfield) Ayres (Five Colonial Families, Vol. II.).

P. 47	No. 165	The wife of Samuel[5] Fitz Randolph was ELIZABETH HULL who was born Feb. 12, 1763, died Feb. 20, 1840, aged "77-0-8". She married second, John McCoy. She was a daughter of Elizabeth Manning (dau. of Nathaniel Manning and Mary Harris), b. Sept. 7, 1736 at Piscataway, N. J., d. after 1814. She mar. first on July 31, 1755, Phineas Dunn, who d. P. 47	Nos. 166:v. and vi.	The husbands are reversed. Esther married Joseph Dickerson, and Agens mar. Immanuel Coryell. This is proved by a deposition made by John Badgley Apr. 5, 1839 on the estate of Zedekiah F. Randolph of Lodi, N. Y., in which he names Zedekiah's heirs as Agnes Coryell, wife of Manuel Coryell, Deborah Eddy, wife of Reuben Eddy, Esther Dickerson, wife of Joseph Dickerson, Abraham Randolph, John F. Randolph and Malaciah F. Randolph. Also in the 1850 Census Report of Covert Township, Seneca Co., N.Y. is given Manuel Coryell aged 57 and Agnes Coryell aged 58, born N. J. This would make the birth date of Agnes about 1792 (Auth. Mrs. Albert Santos, Oakland, Calif.).

P. 51	No. 181a	The marriage date of Jotham F. R. and Catherine Bunn was June 12, 1800 (not 1777).
P. 52	No. 184:i.	Nathaniel[7] Fitz Randolph may well have been the one of that name who mar. Mary Coddington, and is listed in this genealogy under No. 214a. Some of the descendants have a tradition of descent from Capt. Asher, and it would certainly seem that such a careful genealogist as Mr. Hector Craig Fitz Randolph (No. 668:iii.), who was a grandson of Stewart[7] Fitz Randolph, son of Capt. Asher (No. 184), would have this family correct. Moreover, this Nathaniel had two children, as stated by Mrs. Christian (NEHGR 98:52) as follows:
